Radboud University offers approximately 200 courses in English for exchange students in subjects such as economics, art history, psychology, biology, artificial intelligence, and classical languages and literature.

Program Overview

Radboud University is a broad, international oriented university that aspires to be one of the best in Europe. Radboud challenges its students to actively participate in the academic community and trains them to be critical and committed academics, with their own views regarding scholarship and society, who will take up responsible positions in a society which is becoming increasingly internationalized. The university’s academic staff come from all over the world, and a large proportion of the student population has spent at least some months studying at a university abroad.

Academics

Radboud University offers approximately 200 courses in English for exchange students in subjects such as economics, art history, psychology, biology, artificial intelligence, and classical languages and literature.

Student Life

Throughout the year, students can attend several social events and activities to get to know other students as well as the Netherlands and Nijmegen better. Nijmegen has a very active student life and is a host to countless festivals and sporting activities.

Program Facts

Location ........................................ Nijmegen, Netherlands
City Population ........................................... 171,000
University Enrollment ................................. 20,000

Type of Program ........................................ Exchange

Program Dates
Full Academic Year ............................. Mid-August to mid-July
Fall ......................................................... Mid-August to early February
Spring ..................................................... Late January to mid-July

Application & Eligibility

Application Deadlines
Fall/Academic Year .................................................. Mid-February
Spring .................................................................. Early October

Eligibility
• Must be a degree-seeking student
• Have at least sophomore standing
• Have at least a 2.5 cumulative GPA
Program Cost

Students participating in UNC Asheville's exchange programs may use all types of financial aid for which the student qualifies, including federal, state, and UNC Asheville grants, scholarships, and/or loans. Even if you are normally ineligible for financial aid, you should submit a financial aid application; you may find that you are eligible for additional funding.

UNC Asheville students may also apply for our grants and awards for study abroad to help cover program costs. Visit our website for more information on how to qualify and apply for these awards.

Financial Aid & Scholarships

Students participating in UNC Asheville's exchange programs may use all types of financial aid for which the student qualifies, including federal, state, and UNC Asheville grants, scholarships, and/or loans. Even if you are normally ineligible for financial aid, you should submit a financial aid application; you may find that you are eligible for additional funding.

Housing

Students can request assistance from the International Office in finding accommodation. Most students live in student complexes and student houses, share an apartment or rent a room in a house with a landlady or landlord. Students have their own private rooms and share the kitchen and bathroom facilities. The accommodation offered is mixed accommodation. For more information on housing, go to the Radboud University Student Housing webpage.

Finances

Surrounding Area

Radboud University is located in Nijmegen, the Netherlands. It was established on 17 October 1923 and is situated in the oldest city of the Netherlands. Sites of interest include museums, historic buildings, concert halls and theatres, cafes, restaurants, and breweries. The city itself was named the safest Dutch city in which to live and study.

More Websites

UNC Asheville:
studyabroad.unca.edu

Radboud University:
ru.nl/english