Program Overview

The university is one of the oldest public universities in the country, having been founded in the late 13th century, and is one of the leading centers of higher education in Spain. Its academic spirit merges tradition and modernity. It is involved in numerous international relations networks, research centers, and is a major force in culture and sports.

Academics

Courses are offered in a variety of programs such as: business administration and management, economics, statistics, classical studies, philosophy, physics, history, art history, modern languages and literature, chemistry, journalism, and human nutrition and dietetics.

Student Life

In addition to sports, clubs, and a language support center on campus, students have the opportunity to participate in conversation exchanges in several languages (English, French, German, Italian, Spanish)
