Surrounding Area

Baden-Württemberg is a state in southwest Germany bordering France and Switzerland. The Black Forest, known for its evergreen scenery and traditional villages, lies in the mountainous southwest. Stuttgart, the capital, is home to Wilhelma, a royal estate turned zoo and gardens. Porsche and Mercedes-Benz have headquarters and museums there. The 19th-century Hohenzollern Castle sits in the Swabian Alps to the south.

Finances

Program Cost

Since this program is available as an exchange, you pay your regular tuition and fees to UNC Asheville and pay your room and board costs abroad. There will be additional costs, including international airfare, visa (if applicable), and medical insurance (required). Please visit our website for the most up-to-date program cost estimates.

Financial Aid & Scholarships

Students participating in UNC Asheville's exchange programs may use all types of financial aid for which the student qualifies, including federal, state, and UNC Asheville grants, scholarships, and/or loans. Even if you are normally ineligible for financial aid, you should submit a financial aid application; you may find that you are eligible for additional funding.

UNC Asheville students may also apply for our grants and awards for study abroad to help cover program costs. Visit our website for more information on how to qualify and apply for these awards.
